

2022 CMHA, Alberta Division's Jillian Dacyk Award Nomination Form

Submission deadline: September 30, 2022

The award recipient will be notified and presented their award shortly after nomination has closed.

This award is named after Jillian Dacyk, a 35 year-old CMHA, Alberta Division staff member. Ms. Dacyk's support for her coworkers and dedication to improving the mental health of all Albertans will live on through this award.

Nominations for the Jillian Dayck Award are open to all CMHA staff members across Alberta

The staff member being nominated will exemplify the mission, vision and values of CMHA in their professional and personal interactions and demonstrate they share the values of CMHA. They will have made a significant impact within the mental health community through outstanding dedication, competence, exceptional performance and excellent service to their community and their workplace in all or some of the following:

- providing excellent client service;
- making important and significant contributions in the mental health community;
- exceeding the expectations of their position, performing at a level above and beyond normal expectations;
- being a team player and consistently demonstrating an ability and willingness to work positively, respectfully and effectively with others;
- is a leader and demonstrates an ability and willingness to manage changes in work priorities, procedures, and organization;
- is a mentor that demonstrates exceptional ability to support colleagues and foster collaboration, communication, and cooperation among members of the mental health community.
